

New Publications.

Now Ready:

A BOOK which should be in the hands of every man, woman, and child in the Northern States."

AMONG THE PINES;

OR,

SOUTH IN SECESSION-TIME.

BY EDMUND KIRKE.

1 vol. 12mo. $10 pages.

Containing an extraordinary but truthful picture of the social system of the South, describing the domestic life of the rich planters, the small planters, and the "white trash," and depicting actual scenes on the large and small plantations.

To meet the large and increasing demand for this work,

THE TRIBUNE has assumed its publication, and has issued it on the following terms:

Single copies, in cloth, 25 cents; in paper covers, 50 cents.

Single copies sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price.

Twenty-five copies, paper covers.....$3.00 each.

One hundred copies, paper covers.....$30.00 each.

One thousand copies, paper covers.....$20.00 each.

Cash on delivery.

Send the following:

NOTICES FROM THE PRESS.

The remarkable success which it had as a serial in the Continental Monthly shows that "Among the Pines" is the work for a critical time, and contains elements of great value. It is natural, national, and vigorous, a rare and excellent book, written by one who to the most searching common sense adds a keen eye for the locally remarkable, for the humorous, and the pathetic."—[Knickerbocker Magazine.]

Written by a Conservative, an Old-Line Whig, and a voter for Douglass, the book shows no trace of the bitterness which too often colors the accounts of more radical men. Personally its representations are rather favorable to the slaveholder, and therefore, the facts narrated, show the system in even darker colors."—[New-Englander for July, 1862.]

"We may sum up all in one emphatic assertion, to wit: That since 'Uncle Tom' thrilled the public of America and Europe with its lifelike portraiture and impressive dramatic scenes, such as no artist in modern play or 'Old Mortality' had written, no work on Slavery, no work on Southern social life, has been given to the public which can at all be compared to Mr. Kirk's 'Among the Pines'."—[Gazette, Pittsburgh, Penn.]

"As a vivid picture of life in the Carolinas, we are disposed to give this book the palm over all others."—Daily Advertiser, Boston.

"There is not to be found another so absorbing a description of the effects of Slavery upon the master, the slave, and the poor white man, as is this. It is invaluable for general circulation among the people."—[Republican, Tanton, Mass.]

"Without any exception, it is the most graphic and pleasing sketch of Southern life and manners ever printed in America."—[Weekly Dispatch, Amsterdam, N. Y.]

"As a picture of Southern life, it is graphic and admirable in its character. Its value consists in its facts; and the interest of these comes from the peculiar vividness with which they are presented to the eye and mind."—[Home Journal, New York.]

"Here is a book which will be read with deep interest at the present time. The style is vivid, and the pictures sketched true. The writer lays open the secret springs of Secession. Such a work helps us to know the South."—[Recorder, Boston.]

"Written with vigor—a most readable book—and one gets from it a good idea of the state of feeling in the South at the time the Rebellion broke out."—[Sentinel and Times, Bath, Me.]

"A singularly truthful picture, sketched throughout in a masterly manner. Of the many books that aim to delineate plantation-life—the relation of master to slave, and slaves to master and to each other—the emotions and passions which the situation summons to extraordinary action, and all the strange, touching, and tragic fates that so terrible a domination and so fiercely-enforced a submission engender, there is none—no, not one—which can for a moment compare with it. It is the ardent South, with all the wondrous accuracy the dauber-roots can give it; and, moreover, it is the South in Secession-time."—[Gazette, Tanton, Mass.]

"The story is clear and terrible, with the lurid light of the passions, miseries, and violence that grow out of Slavery. It is a simple and faithful account of things that actually happened—a striking and truthful portraiture of slave society—a powerful and awful story."—[Independent, New York.]

"A work which will be read and remembered as more original and suggestive in idea and purpose, and more dramatic in execution, than any issue of the press since 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'."—[Norfolk Co. Journal, Roxbury, Mass.]

"The admirable style in which the narrative is written, the evident familiarity with Southern life and character which exhibits, and the marked indications of life-like truthfulness that appear, render it a noteworthy and impressive work."—[Buffalo Express.]

"In romantic interest and life-like delineation of Southern life, it excels 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'."—[Mirror, Ithaca, N. Y.]

"AMONG THE PINES" is full of graphic and dramatic power, full of thrilling scenes, full of strong truth, and belongs to that school of writing in which great facts are elucidated by simple narrative."—[Dem and American, Rochester, N. Y.]

"It has had no equal since 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'." In variety and consciousness it is superior to that."—[Zion's Herald, Boston.]

"Mr. Kirk knows the South and its people as well as any one living. He was neither an Abolitionist nor a Pro-Slavery man, but rebellion made him a writer. His characters have distinct individuality, and have lived—many of them are still living."—[Press, Philadelphia.]

"The author has, in this volume, made his mark on the literature of the time. He displays keen insight into human nature, ready humor, and pathos which is tragic in its intensity."—[Flag, Boston.]

"A most interesting book—surpassing in vividness of portraiture and relief of individuality 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' or any other book that we have read."—[Republican, Orleans, N. Y.]

"It contains the most vivid and lifelike representation of a specimen family of poor Southern whites which we have ever read."—[E. P. Whipple, in the Boston Transcript.]

"One of the most attractive works ever published, and embodying only facts"—[C. C. Hazell, in the Traveller, Boston.]

"It is the best and most truthful sketch of Southern life and character we have ever read."—[E. S. Sheldon, Mackenzie, in the Press, Philadelphia.]

"It equals, if not surpasses, as a romance alone, 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' while it has the advantage of truth on its side."—[Republican, Worcester, N. Y.]

"The most graphic and deeply interesting sketches of Southern life, character, and social economy that we have ever seen."—[Record, Dundee, Scotland.]

"If anybody dares to know what Slavery is, and what slaveholders and their negroes are, let them read this work. The author tells his story in a superb way. We do not see how it could be told better."—[Home Monthly, Boston.]

Ordered in the order in which they are received.

Address

THE TRIBUNE,
New-York.

New Publications.

THE NEW BOOKS READY THIS MORNING:

LIES MISERABLES—MARIUS.
The third part of Victor Hugo's great French Novel, which is creating such a literary sensation. Uniform in price and style with part first, "Fantine," and part second, "Cosette." Paper covers, price 50 cents, and cloth bound, $1.

II.

THE FLYING DUTCHMAN.

An entirely new, humorous poem of the funniest character, by John G. Saxe, with sixteen irresistibly comic illustrations, on tinted paper. Cloth, bound in style of "Nothing to Wear," price 50 cents. A regular hit.

NEXT WEEK.

OUT OF HIS HEAD.

A strange and eccentric romance, by T. B. Aldrich, (author of "Babie Bell.") Paper covers, price 50 cents, and cloth bound, on superior paper, $1.

Sold by all booksellers, and sent by mail free, on receipt of price, by

CARLETON, PUBLISHER,
(Late Reed & Carleton,) No. 413 Broadway, corner Liapenard, N. Y.A GUIDE TO HEALTH.
THE NEW GYMNASTICS FOR MEN, WOMEN, AND CHILDREN.

By Dr. J. Lewis, M. D., Proprietor of the Lippincott Gymnasium, Philadelphia. With three hundred illustrations, 1 vol. 12mo. Price $1.

All persons who value health and strength should read this work. Its teachings, faithfully followed, will restore and preserve health.

These are the most complete manual of gymnastic exercises ever published. It contains several hundred different exercises with DUMB-BELLS, INDIAN CLUBS, WANDS, RINGS, BABE-BAGS, etc. Fully described and illustrated by pictorial representations. It describes THE PAN-GYMNASTICUS, a cheap and easy apparatus of GYMNASIUMS, which is now in use in Europe.

The exercises may be performed in the house circle.

They are adapted to make strong men, ladies, and children.

Their performance furnishes an inexhaustible source of entertainment.

Send ONE DOLLAR to the publishers and they will send you "THE NEW GYMNASTICS" postage paid.

TICKNOR & FIELDS, Publishers, Boston, Mass.
No. 150 Washington, Boston, Mass.

MEDICAL COMMON SENSE.—Nearly 300

illustrated and nicely bound pages. Written in plain English that everybody can understand. Part I treats on the Causes, Prevention, and Cure of Chronic Diseases. Part II. Causes, Prevention, and Cure of Acute Diseases. Part III. Causes, Prevention, and Cure of Mental Diseases. Part IV. Causes, Prevention, and Cure of Diseases of Childhood. Part V. Causes, Prevention, and Cure of Diseases of Old Age.

In regard to the Chinese Gold Pen, he begs leave to say, previous to offering his new and Patented Machine, he could not have made so good a pen.

Formerly he had some instances specify the "Name and address of the head of Pens they prefer—whether stiff or flexible, coarse or fine.

All remittances by mail in Registered Letters are at my risk.

Address, A. MORTON,
No. 25 Maiden Lane, New-York.

Any one sending a single letter post-stamp will receive gratis a circular.

GEORGE H. HAWKES, No. 64 Doremus, N. Y.

THE NEW TARIFF AND INTERNAL TAXES

complete in one book, systematically and alphabetically arranged for READY REFERENCE, from the Official Edition of the Acts of Congress. "Embraces the entire body of existing duties, and is divided up as most convenient, according to the principal articles of commerce, and provides for the valuation of each article according to its current market value."

Price Ten Cents. Order the Official Edition.

DICK & FITZGERALD, August 1; SINCLAIR TOUTSEY & HENRY DEXTER, Nassau-st.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "PICCIOLO."

QUEEN OF THE DANUBE:
A STORY OF MONTENEGRO.Translated from the French
JAMES MILLER,
Successor to C. S. FRASER & CO.,

No. 32 Broadway.

NEW TAX LAW.—National Edition, full and complete, #230 pp. 16mo. Also, "Patriot Stationery Packets," with seal embossed, to sell them. Choices from B. HASKINS & CO., No. 32 Beckman, New-York.

DIP Goods.

GREAT ATTRACTION!

UNPARALLELED BARGAINS.

STILL GREATER REDUCTION

IN PRICES OF RICH SILKS, DREDGES, CLOAKS, SACQUES, AND MANTILLAS, at the GREAT CLEARING OUT SALE OF CHARLES HEARD & CO.,

No. 301 GRAND-ST.

(Previous to taking Stock).

$20,000 WORTH RICH SILKS MARKED DOWN.

$15,000 WORTH RICH DRESS GOODS, MARKED DOWN.

$10,000 WORTH PURE LINENS AND FAMILY GOODS, MARKED DOWN.

$12,000 WORTH RICH MANTILLAS AND CLOAKS, MARKED DOWN.

Notwithstanding the great advance in price of Cotton Goods, we shall continue to sell our present large stock of DOMESTIC GOODS at a still further reduction.

We shall also offer a great reduction in prices for all kinds of goods, and we invite our customers to come and see us.

CHARLES HEARD & CO., 301 Grand-st., New York.

AGENCY for the NEW-HAVEN PATENT SHIRTS.

Made to order or ready-made.

The cheapest, finest, and best-fitted Shirts made in this City.

SUMMER UNDERSHIRTS and DRAWS, ENGLISH and GERMAN HOIERY, HANDKERCHIEFS, SCARFS, TIRES, STURPS, GLOVES, UMBRELLAS, &c.

At the Shirt and Collar Depot, Nos. 67 and 69 William-st., one door from Maiden-lane.

THOMAS C. GRANNIS, Agent.

EAST INDIA and AMERICAN INDIAN Goods.

A variety of articles, in every variety, wholesale and retail, at FOULSTON'S India Store, No. 354 Broadway.

Wants.

A LADY, experienced in teaching French and German, is in REENGAGEMENT in a School or Private Family; teaches Oil Painting if desired. Address M. O. Box No. 225 Detroit, Mich.

WANTED—By a first-class COOK, who thoroughly understands her business, a servant in city or country. Understands meats, Poultry, Baking and Pastry. Also, a regular WAITER, who takes charge of the Silver and Dining-Room. Wages, #7 and #8, city or country, part or full time. Address No. 150 Broad-st., between 2d and 3d streets, for two days.

ALL RESPECTABLE FAMILIES, BOARDING-HOUSES, and HOTELS can be supplied with good SERVANTS from all nations, both Protestant and Catholic, at Mrs. YORKSTON'S Office, in the large marble building, No. 44th-st.

BUNDANE of good SERVANTS to be engaged for a gentle, medium-sized private family, completely furnished, and with all modern improvements, located in Brooklyn, N. Y. Address Mrs. YORKSTON, 44th-st., Brooklyn.

It combines the accuracy of Olmstead's work with the thrilling interest of "Uncle Tom."—[Continental Monthly.]

The author has, in this volume, made his mark on the literature of the time. He displays keen insight into human nature, ready humor, and pathos which is tragic in its intensity."—[Flag, Boston.]

"It has had no equal since 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'." In variety and consciousness it is superior to that."—[Zion's Herald, Boston.]

"Mr. Kirk knows the South and its people as well as any one living. He was neither an Abolitionist nor a Pro-Slavery man, but rebellion made him a writer. His characters have distinct individuality, and have lived—many of them are still living."—[Press, Philadelphia.]

"The admirable style in which the narrative is written, the evident familiarity with Southern life and character which exhibits, and the marked indications of life-like truthfulness that appear, render it a noteworthy and impressive work."—[Buffalo Express.]

"In romantic interest and life-like delineation of Southern life, it excels 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'."—[Mirror, Ithaca, N. Y.]

"AMONG THE PINES" is full of graphic and dramatic power, full of thrilling scenes, full of strong truth, and belongs to that school of writing in which great facts are elucidated by simple narrative."—[Dem and American, Rochester, N. Y.]

"It has had no equal since 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'." In variety and consciousness it is superior to that."—[Zion's Herald, Boston.]

"Mr. Kirk knows the South and its people as well as any one living. He was neither an Abolitionist nor a Pro-Slavery man, but rebellion made him a writer. His characters have distinct individuality, and have lived—many of them are still living."—[Press, Philadelphia.]

"The admirable style in which the narrative is written, the evident familiarity with Southern life and character which exhibits, and the marked indications of life-like truthfulness that appear, render it a noteworthy and impressive work."—[Independent, New York.]

"In romantic interest and life-like delineation of Southern life, it excels 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'."—[Mirror, Ithaca, N. Y.]

"AMONG THE PINES" is full of graphic and dramatic power, full of thrilling scenes, full of strong truth, and belongs to that school of writing in which great facts are elucidated by simple narrative."—[Dem and American, Rochester, N. Y.]

"It has had no equal since 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'." In variety and consciousness it is superior to that."—[Zion's Herald, Boston.]

"Mr. Kirk knows the South and its people as well as any one living. He was neither an Abolitionist nor a Pro-Slavery man, but rebellion made him a writer. His characters have distinct individuality, and have lived—many of them are still living."—[Press, Philadelphia.]

"The admirable style in which the narrative is written, the evident familiarity with Southern life and character which exhibits, and the marked indications of life-like truthfulness that appear, render it a noteworthy and impressive work."—[Buffalo Express.]

"In romantic interest and life-like delineation of Southern life, it excels 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'."—[Mirror, Ithaca, N. Y.]

"AMONG THE PINES" is full of graphic and dramatic power, full of thrilling scenes, full of strong truth, and belongs to that school of writing in which great facts are elucidated by simple narrative."—[Dem and American, Rochester, N. Y.]</